THE First Methodist church at Trenton, New Jersey, believes that if the display advertising is good for business it must be for religion, and it is more than ever convinced now of the correctness of its belief. Last Saturday the church committee in charge of the revival, had inserted in a local afternoon paper a half page advertisement in the boldest of black faced type, under the startling headlines, "Stop, Look, Listen!" The advertisement detailed the services of the day, offering as a special attraction a large chorus choir. The effect of the advertisement was all that had been anticipated, for long before the hour for service to commence people began to fill the building, which is one of the largest auditoriums in the city. A score of persons responded to the invitation to accept Christ and the services closed with impressive thanksgiving for the work that had been accomplished during the three weeks. It pays to advertise; therefore be wise and do likewise.

THEY do things differently in Russia. For instance, when the government wants money it finds out who are the bank depositors and taxes it, giving its bonds in exchange. During the war it took very large sums from the savings banks and gave its bonds. It is now about to take $35,000,000 more from these banks for famine relief and give its bonds in place thereof.

A LIST of gifts of Andrew Carnegie and John D. Rockefeller show that the steel magnate has the coal oil king beat a block. The former has given away $134,955,365 of his hard earned cash, while the latter has put up only $85,056,988. John will have to get a move on himself or he will be disgraced by dying rich.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that President Roosevelt is "stuck" on Railroad Commissioner A. T. Siler. The latter's display of a mouth full of big teeth might have caused Teddy's admiration. It is hard to tell which has the fiercest looking molars, the President or the Commissioner.

As all three of the Danville papers have published the lengthy law on running pool and billiard rooms our Boyle county friends should be pretty conversant with it. News must be scarce in and around Little Britain.

THE Richmond Register says that old maids are dying out and in a few years they will be no more. If the editor of that paper will visit Stanford he will correct in his next issue the fearful blunder he has made.

POLITICAL.

The Holladay Anti-Jug Bill was practically killed in the Tennessee Senate. Two-cent railroad fare bills were passed in the lower houses of the Missouri, Iowa and West Virginia Legislatures.

Representative James came very near getting a three-cent fare bill for the District of Columbia through the House. Vice President Fairbanks delivered an address at the Lincoln day banquet in Baltimore. Secretary Shaw also responded to a toast.

Ex-Governor Cox warned the Tennessee Legislature that it was time for that body to call a halt on the mania for the creation of new offices.

Preparations are beginning in Maryland for a close and determined contest over the election by the next Legislature of two United States Senators.

The Senate has refused to concur in the House provision to abolish a number of pension agencies, and it is believed that the agencies will remain.

The Senate passed the Army Appropriation Bill, but refused to allow the amendment permitting the Government to accept reduced rates for the transportation of troops.

The suffrage bill, giving women the right to vote at all elections and to hold municipal offices, was favorably reported in the Indiana Legislature by the committee on Rights and Privileges.

The Texas Legislature has passed a bill to tax all express companies doing business in the State $5,000 each.

Negroes say they will support neither Judges A. R. Burnam nor Edward O'Rear for governor, because of their position in the separate coach and Berea College cases.

Rev. John T. Stamper and Rev. Dillon Blevins, Baptist ministers, and Mr. Sawyer Smith, son of a Baptist minister, are candidates for the republican nomination for representative in Knox and Whitley.

Friends of Vice President Fairbanks are jubilant over the reception given him at Baltimore at the Lincoln day dinner, and feel that it is a big boost for his presidential aspirations. He was introduced by the toastmaster as the next president of the United States.

Senator Blackburn and Senator McCreaty believe Kentuckians are satisfied with the Rivers and Harbors Bill, which passed the House last week, as neither of them has got a letter from Kentucky asking that changes be made in the Senate, says a Washington dispatch.

A situation of doubt exists in the Indiana Legislature over the pending insurance legislation. Some Republicans claim it would give Gov. Hanly more power, when he has too much already. Gov. Hanly has entered the fight, and has appealed to some of the Democratic members for support of the bill.

President Roosevelt sent to Congress Wednesday a message calling attention to the "urgent need of legislation affecting the different phases of the public land situation in the United States." He advocates the conservation of coal and other fuel resources on lands still belonging to the government; urges government control of the Western public land pastures, with a system of small grazing fees, and asks for an appropriation of half a million dollars in addition to present estimates to aid in detecting and preventing frauds.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mrs. Jerry Powell, an aged Richmond woman, is dead.

John Onstott, a prominent Garrard county farmer, is dead of consumption.

William R. Thomas has been appointed postmaster at Pine Hill, Rockcastle county.

Mrs. A. W. Barker, aged 71 and a splendid Christian woman, is dead in Danville.

W. H. Holbrook, of Claiborne county, Tenn., was killed by an L. & N. train near Middlesboro.

Dave and John Otter killed a 300 pound bear on Rockcastle river, at the mouth of Sinking, in Laurel county.

W. C. Burton, who attempted criminal assault on a nine-year-old girl at Richmond, was given two years in the pen.

B. F. Robinson, of Marcellus, Garrard county, has sold a half interest in his store to Joe Skinner, of Beuna Vista.

Henry W. Waite, superintendent of the Chattanooga division of the Q & C, has resigned and gone with the Sea board Air Line.

Danville capital is back of a new concern that has just been started at Stearns for the manufacture of mineral wool, which is largely used for insulating purposes as well as a sound-deadener.

The case of Samuel E. Welch a rich Berea merchant, charged with shooting with intent to kill P. D. McBride, of Louisville, last October, is occupying the attention of the Madison circuit court.

Purnelaker & Jones, attorneys of Louisville, have received notice that the court of claims has allowed the following claims of Kentucky Civil War soldiers: Louis Landrum, Lancaster, as administrator of William J. Landrum, $415; John W. Siler, Williamsburg, $213; G. M. Barnett, Somerset, administrator of J. T. W. Barnett, $707; Mason C. Miller, Mt. Vernon, $55; Mary E. Brunaugh, Crab Orchard, daughter of Reuben Munday, $199.

What is it?

House Visitation is a united effort in a systematic plan by Christian people in a community for the purpose of bringing all the people into touch with some Sunday School and church.

The movement will reach all the people, as the plan of organization has been so perfected that it is practicable for the largest cities, smallest towns and most inaccessible country districts; and the work as planned is so thorough that no one is left out.

It puts a printed invitation in every home, assuring everyone that each Sunday School and Church in the community desires their presence, and wants to share their fellowship in Christ, with them.

A record of every man, woman and child is secured. The records are classified and sent to the pastors and organizations preferred, which gives them the information so necessary for successful work. Therefore, it will reach all the people, invite all the people, put the Sunday School and Church into touch with all the people, which should bring all the people into touch with the Sunday School and Church.

All visitors who have been appointed by me who have not reported will please do so at once. Garland Singleton, Manager for Lincoln county.

No 98—A farm of about 100 acres on one of the best turnpikes in the county. A handsome two story frame dwelling and one of the largest and best barns in the county. This place is well watered and everything about it, including fencing, is in splendid repair. In a good community close to schools and about 20 minutes drive from Stanford. This is a very desirable home. Price $7,500.

No 75—150,000 acres of cotton land in Mississippi. There is no section of country which offers so many opportunities for profitable investment as the Mississippi Delta which is now fifty described as "Prosperity Valley." The timber is becoming more valuable all the time for the reason that lumber people from the North (where the supply of timber is fast diminishing) are constantly increasing their purchases of timber lands in the South. When the timber is removed the land is unequalled for agriculture purposes. It will produce a bale of cotton to the acre or will grow any other kind of crop raised in the temperate zone. The soil needs no fertilizers and gives a yield which cannot be excelled; taxes are low, the title is perfect and the man who buys Delta farm and timber lands at present prices is making an investment that he will never regret. This land is divided into tracts ranging from 40 acres to the tract to 12,000 acres to the tract and prices from $5 per acre to $15 per acre, according to location, etc. We are authorized by the company who owns these lands to state that as other parties are considering the purchase of these lands that we offer these tracts subject to prior sale, withdrawal from market or change in price without notice. However, when notified, they will hold any tract out of market long enough for the purchaser to make an investigation. About 12,000 acres of this land has been sold by the company since we received this option. For further particulars call at our office.

No 15—230 acre farm 3 1/2 mile of Crab Orchard, Ky. Brick dwelling 5 rooms, two tenant houses, two barns, well and spring near dwelling. Farm in excellent cultivation, 150 acres river bottom land, good fencing, fruit, etc. Price $40.00 an acre.

No 75—A nice farm at Highland, Ky., well improved, well watered, etc. Price $500.

34—40 acres of land on Jamestown road south of Danville, 100 acres in cultivation, about 75 acres in timber and rest in grass. A large new frame dwelling also an old dwelling on place. A new barn and wood ousies. It is well watered and the fencing is good. On public road. Price $2,000.

Also a 50 barrel mill in Mercer county Ky., on Salt River. Steam power, new, up-to-date in every particular, and good dwelling with improvements and 20 acres of fine land, close to Southern railroad. Price $9,000.

No 135—Cottage in Lancaster, 77 feet front and 300 feet deep. All necessary outbuildings except barn. Everything is new and in good shape. Cottage contains 4 rooms, hall, veranda, back porch and basement. Close to school, churches, etc. Price $2,500.00.

No 70—Ten acres of land, two story front cottage, seven rooms, hall, etc. House is new, a good garden and splendid orchard of 15 acres, fencing good, two stables, buggy house, smoke house, etc. A good well on place, there is also a good mill on the place, a c. c. crusher in mill it is run by a small water wheel which is a great economy and the dam is in good repair. Will sell the property at a low figure or lease.

No 26—Frame hotel, large rooms, double veranda, bath, etc. 30 feet from hotel; up stairs suitable for dwelling. 2 nice cottages, nicely furnished and papered, 4 rooms and veranda, back porch, large barn on name lot used as livery stable. Good garden. Vacant lot adjoining, 36 feet front by 200 feet deep. All of this property is in Leon, Ky., and is a chance for someone to make money. Proprietor has refused to rent property for $50 per month. On account of ill health of his wife (only reason for selling) proprietor desires to exchange for farm in Lincoln county.

No 75—A small farm of 75 acres of good land located close to town. Price $2,250.

No 34—90 acres of land one mile from Somerset, Ky., out in seven fields. Forty acres in cultivation, 40 acres in pasture; balance in timber. Dwelling contains seven rooms. Large barn and all necessary outbuildings. Fencing and buildings in splendid repair. Well watered. Price $2,800.

No 28—100 acres of land in Ford county, Kas., six miles from railroad and 3 1/2 miles from Arkansas river. Seventy acres of land is river bottom. Is first-class land and in grass. This land is for sale or exchange. 325 acres in Allen county, Ky., on railroad and pike, about 50 acres cultivated, about 125 in timber and grass, and about 150 in grass. Timber on place is cut to 18 inches, but will make barrel timber, shingles, ties and cord wood enough to pay for the place twice over. A large part is fenced. There are four dwellings of 4 rooms each and one store of two stories with rooms above, has wells and springs of water. Is in 2 miles of county seat and grows tobacco, corn, wheat, grass, etc., for $2,200 One-half cash.
